

In the name of solidarity - exchange meeting of people with flight or migration experience

On September 16, the Refugee Council invites to a Baden-Württemberg-wide exchange meeting of people with flight or migration experience. Together we would like to discuss how we can cooperate better in order to assert our interests politically. The goal is to create more solidarity between migrantized people by means of exchange and networking.

The meeting will take place at the Left Center Lilo Hermann at Böblinger Str. 105 in Stuttgart.

Program:

10:00-10:30: Welcome

10:30-12:00: Getting to know each other

12:00-13:00: Lunch

13:00-14:30: Workshops in small groups

- I. Solidarity activism: How can we improve our cooperation when we take to the streets with political demands?
- II. Policy making: What are the barriers for migrantized people to become politically active? How can we empower each other in the process?
- III. Raising female voices: What are the challenges for refugee women in political engagement? An exchange in order to motivate and encourage.

14:30-15:00: Coffee break

15:00-16:00: Joint closing

Registration: Want to participate? Please send an email to partizipation@fluechtlingsrat-bw.de by September 10.

Questions: You have questions about the exchange meeting? Feel free to email partizipation@fluechtlingsrat-bw.de.
